

It's St. Patrick's Day
who's up for some treasure
hunt fun?
If you'd like to join the hunt,
the table is where you'll find
clue number one.

I'm glad you joined the hunt
are you looking for some gold?
If I were you I'd look where
the food is kept cold.

There's no gold here
but a helpful clue for you.
Go where you look
to get an outside view.

You're really good at finding clues
so here goes the next one.
You put these on your feet
right before you go for a run.

Four leaf clovers are lucky
that's my fun fact for you.
Your next clue is where
hot coffee will brew.

Ready to give up? Are you tired
of finding clues?
I hear there is another one
where you wipe your shoes.

You'll get a pinch if you're not wearing something green.
So find your next clue near a green shirt that is clean.

At the end of the rainbow
there's a pot of gold.
At the bottom of the hamper there's a clue I've been told.

Lucky charms are a good breakfast on St. Patrick's Day.
By the cereal bowls another
clue may lay.

Roses are red,
shamrocks are green.
The next clue is near the
washing machine.

Leprechauns are clever and
known for being tricky.
What spreads on toast and can
be rather sticky?

March 17th is
today's special date.
The next clue is where
you'd put a clean plate.

Keep up the good work,
you're almost there.
The next clue is where
you wash your hair.

Following all these clues
will be worth it in the end.
Go to the thing you'd open
to let in a friend.

Are corned beef and cabbage
on your menu today?
Find your next clue where books
are put away.

Frogs, grass and clovers
are all things that are green.
This next clue picks up dirt
and makes the floor all clean.

The treasure at the end is something you ought to see.
Now find the thing you use
to turn on the T.V.

With how fast you're going
this must be too easy for you.
Look where the canned food is
and see if you can find a clue.

The way you've found these clues is impressive I must say.
Your next one is where you'd
find a board game to play.

Keep your eyes open,
that treasure can't be far.
Maybe it's with the item
that's used to start a car.

You must be determined to find yourself some gold.
What do you wrap up in
when you've gotten too cold?

You're so very close
but not done yet.
Go to the spot you sit
when the table is set.

Today just might
be your lucky day,
if you find the last clue
where you go to lay.

I can't believe you found
each and every clue.
I guess that means
this treasure is for you!
