

Today is your birthday, it's time to celebrate you.
So I've planned a birthday hunt, as a special thing to do.
I promise it'll be worth it and you should have a lot of fun.
The couch is where you'll find your clue number one.

Let's see if you've grown taller
over the past 365 days.

Near the item that'll
measure this,
another
clue lays.

Do you prefer chocolate or vanilla for a birthday cake?

Your next clue
is hiding where
this cake
will bake.

When you blow out your candles,
make a wish and get each one.
If you're searching for a clue,
look where your clothes get spun.

You can do more things
now that you're one year older.

Another clue
is waiting
where food
gets colder.

I hope all of your birthday
wishes come true.
You'll find your next hint
where you put away a shoe.

You've made
yet another
trip around the sun.
Look where backpacks go
when the school day is done.

Wishing you a day
that's as wonderful as you.
Time to look where you wash up
to find your next clue.

Party hats and streamers
balloons and more.
Another clue is hiding
behind a door.
Which door is it?
I haven't a clue.
I guess that'll need
to be figured out by you.

We can't forget a picture
to document this day.
Smile, say cheese and then go where socks are put away.

You are loved, you are treasured,
you are simply adored.
You'll find another clue
where the cereal is stored.

This past year you've accomplished things
both big and small.
To get your next clue
go find a sports ball.

Today, you're
one year older & you've gotten
much more wise.
So can you find the clue
where at night your head lies?

Once your birthday
song is sung,
look where coats
are often hung.
Here there'll be another clue
just hiding out of view.

I hope your birthday is memorable & an extra special day.
Your next clue is where you'd put
a board game away.

Go look at your reflection,
and here's what you'll find:
A kid who is brave, strong,
& smart, & incredibly kind.
There's one more thing you should see, yes, it's true.
Another clue waiting
there just for you.

I hope this day
is your luckiest by far.
Your next clue is hiding
by the thing that starts a car.

Hooray, you did it! You found each one.
Your birthday treasure hunt is finally done.
You've solved each clue now time for your prize.
Go look in your closet for your Birthday surprise!
