

Hippity, hoppity
I must get going.
Before I leave,
here's something
worth knowing.
I've hidden your basket
and eggs all around.
But don't worry
I left clues
so they can be found.
The first one is easy
you'll solve it no doubt.
It's near a spot
where water comes out.

See that clue wasn't hard,
you found it with ease.

The next stop
is the spot
where water
will freeze.

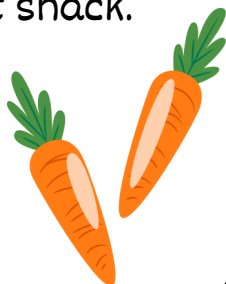

Jelly beans and chocolate
are both a yummy treat.

I hid another egg
where you'd go
to sit and eat.

Bunnies love carrots
they make a great snack.

I hid another egg
inside a backpack.

While you were busy snoozing,
I took out a game to play.

Then, I left behind an egg,
when I put
the game away.

Solving these clues takes
quite a bit of skill.

To find another egg,

I'd check a window sill.

Hippity, hoppity, here we go!

Find another egg, where you sit to watch a show.

Look at you go

finding eggs left and right.

If you'd like to find some more,
look by the item used to write.

I knew you were smart and could follow these clues.

I may have dropped some eggs, in a few of your shoes.

Hop, Hop, Hop, we're off
to the next stop.

This thing cooled
me down when I'd gotten too hot.

Easter eggs come
in pink, red, and blue.
A clue hides in the item

that cooks a soup or stew.

I left a lot of clues
but you can solve them,
I know you will.
You use this next thing
to wipe up a spill.

Look up, look down,
look left, look right.
The next clue is where coats hang, but just out of sight.

I had to be quick
so I'm sorry if I left a mess.
Your next clue
heats up food
in a minute or less.

I went to use the bathroom
because I really had to go.
While I was in there,
I left an egg on a roll
that was getting low.

Easter makes me happy,
I'll shout it out with glee.
If your looking for a clue,
the pantry's where
it ought to be.

365 days
until it's Easter once more.
Your next clue is by what sucks dirt up off the floor.

Chocolate bunnies
or jelly beans
which do you like more?
If I were you right now,
I'd search behind
each door.

Happy Easter from me to you.
The sock drawer is where you'll find another clue.

I was getting kind of tired,
so I brewed a cup of Joe.
I also left an egg for you
while I was doing so.

You're oh so close
to finding your basket,
just an egg or two more.
This next clue sits
by the thing
that unlocks a car or door.

Oh boy, look at the time,
I really need to go.
I left an egg where books are kept
I thought you'd want to know.

This clue is quick,
I'm in a rush.
Put on this paste and
brush, brush, brush.

I must get on my way now

I have lots more houses to see.

I hope you enjoyed
this egg hunt

just as much as me.

To find your basket

here's one more thing to know.

I left it on the porch

before I had to go.
